

EUSTON TOWER

“Probably one of the best views from a London office”

When you walk into your new office on the 34th floor the defining feature is the amazing view from every window

Our aim, when we conceptualised this office, was to create 5 star surroundings and service but at 3 star prices. The office space is unbranded and for discerning clients. We have taken care to employ staff that are aware we are there to support your business.

As your back office support team we can arrange hotels, flights or provide ink for your printer. Whether you have an internal meeting or a product launch we can provide suitable meeting space that will inspire your staff or clients.
